

Relaxed Glamour In a Picture Perfect Presidio Setting

When a young couple (with newborn twin boys!) sought a home that exuded warmth, major San Francisco style, and was also suitable for both casual living and more formal occasions, they called upon the talents of Kendall Wilkinson Design. Kendall gave the couple the comfort they asked for while casting an effortless, glamorous spell over the whole home in SF's beautiful Presidio.

Glam it Up!

Designed by Kendall Wilkinson Design

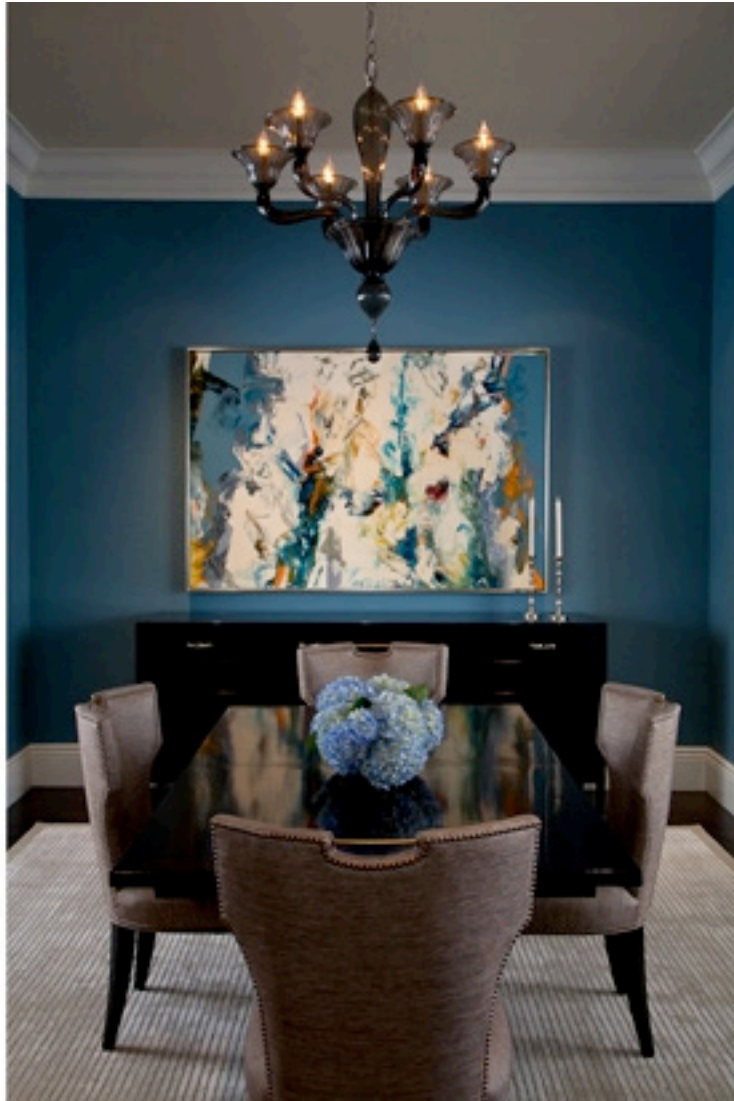

The living room of the couple's abode is the epitome of relaxed glamour. Kendall selected a palette of cream, lilac, and elephant grey. The room exudes luxurious texture from the graphic rug to the satin pillows to the suede chairs. The glass-drop tiered chandelier adds the perfect amount of classy glitz!

Entertaining In Style

An bar table sits quietly by, ready for a whirl when entertaining is in order. The Lucite table and matching glassware are so posh and lovely – we adore the tufted leather stools! The texture from the living room is carried over in this gorgeous, moody wall painting.

Moody and Lovely

A midnight navy blue adorns the walls in the stately dining room. The open floor plan allows the dining room to connect the living and family rooms, acting as a transitional space. The gunmetal chandelier is by Murano, and seriously complements the DiPaolo painting.

Gazing at Galleries

Cross over into the family room, where the bright blue is mirrored again in the suede chairs. The walls are a bit more subdued than the dining room; a pale sepia tone runs around the walls, where a gallery of images are arranged in perfect abstract fashion.

Light and Bright

The kitchen is light and bright, pairing white cabinetry with showcasing modern stainless steel appliances. Pendant lights are simple and sophisticated; love the juxtaposition of light and dark in the high bar seats and white marble countertop.
