INSTANT ROOM

A MODERN BILLIARD ROOM

San Francisco designer Kendall Wilkinson whips up a cool, textured play space for every generation. "This is a tribute to the pleasures of old-fashioned gaming—in spite of the high-tech world!" she says. "It's got a loungey, soulful vibe all ages can enjoy."

Wilkinson used a chunky silver-toned sisal rug to contrast with the sofa's smooth texture. A dark wood-paneled wall enhances the room's warm, earthy feel.

SHAPE UP

"The chrome finish and striking silhouette contrast with the room's natural materials."

"The rich gray sofa provides a neutral backdrop for fun accent pillows—like statement jewelry against a little black dress! I like the yin and yang of this graphic, masculine weave with the fluid, painterly fabric."
